

Eatin' Records Shipping and Return Policies

Shipping Info:

We use Standard shipping which typically takes 8-10 business days, which includes production time. Vistaprint uses a variety of shipping carriers, including the United States Postal Service (USPS) and UPS. We will always try to provide you with tracking info (if available) once your order ships.

Return Policy:

We use Vistaprint to fulfill our T-shirt orders and they are completely committed to ensuring that you are satisfied with your experience with them and offers a satisfaction guarantee on their products. If you are not fully satisfied with a product you've received, you can contact their Customer Support department (or us) within 30 days after the delivery date to resolve the issue. Customer Support can be contacted by calling 1-866-614-8002 or by filling out the contact form on their website. If you contact Vistaprint through their site, you will receive a response to your inquiry within 1 business day.

You should inspect all products as soon as you get your order. If any product is defective or appears to have been damaged during shipping, you may contact their Customer Support team (or us) for help in resolving the issue.

Buying Products: We are not responsible for any damages or losses caused by third parties in connection with any shipment(s) to you.
